

SOCIETY

Looking forward to the week that is to come, with its joyous celebrations, home cheer, contentment and best of all, its Thanksgiving service, the desire has materialized to make into a bouquet of verse the thoughts in which the Thanksgiving idea has taken form and shape, and gone out into the world through the pen of the poets, who thus have sung its praises in saying:

So Christmas and Thanksgiving close
Their hands and brightly bridge December,
Close met within that heartfelt grasp.
All friends are friends of all remember.
Two feast fires glow across the snow,
Dead voices answer to the living.
As home to meet our own we go:
"Praise God for Christmas and Thanksgiving."

—Lucy Larcom.

For the hay and the corn and the wheat that is reaped,
For the sun and the dew and the honeycomb,
For the rose and the song and the harvest brought home;
For the trade and the skill and the wealth in our land,
For the cunning and strength of the working man's hand,
For the good that our artists and poets have taught,
For the friendship that hope and affection have brought—
Thanksgiving!

—Anon.

So now when Autumn doffs her robes
Of purple and green and gold,
When the trees stand leafless, bare and brown,
And the nights grow black and cold,
Again we come together all,
To keep in the good old way,
Just as they did in days of yore,
A glad Thanksgiving Day.

—E. M. Hadley.

Our common mother rests and sings,
Like Ruth among her garnered sheaves;
Her lap is full of goodly things,
Her brow is bright with autumn leaves.
Oh, favors old, yet ever new,
Oh, blessings with the sunshine sent!
The bounty overruns our due,
The fulness shames our discontent.

—John G. Whittier.

O russet-robed November,
What ails thee so to smile?
Chill August, pale September
Endured a woful while,
And fell as falls an ember
From forth a flameless pile;
But golden-girt November
Bids all she looks on smile.

—Charles Algernon Swinburne.

The Week in Prospect.

The week in prospect is very gay, something of social importance being scheduled for every day of its course. All society interests of the week really centre in Thursday, when the town will be wailing with the University of Virginia and the University of North Carolina, and the football teams of the two universities will be the heroes of the hour.

The coming back to the city of numbers of college girls and boys will infuse an element of youth and gaiety into everything. After the football game in the afternoon will come the performance of "The Man on the Box" at the Bijou Theatre, when the students of the universities, the young girls who are to go to the Thanksgiving german with them, the debutantes and teams will be the evening's guests of honor.

The crowning event of the day will be the Thanksgiving german, to be danced in Masonic Temple after the Bijou play. The german will be directed by Misses Ella and Lillian Binford, the debutantes of the present season will appear in the opening nature, and the following ladies and gentlemen will be the patrons and patronesses of the evening: Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Kent, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hume, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pinckney, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Benson, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Conquest, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bowles, Mr. and Mrs. Lynchburg, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Bowles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moreland, Mr. and Mrs. James Pritchard, Mr. and Mrs. L. Johnson, Mrs. Penelope Turner, Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Gram, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Weiden, Dr. and Mrs. Armistead Wellford, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Buford, Mr. and Mrs. William Talley, Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitehurst, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Powers.

Mr. Adolphus Blair will lead the german. In honor of Miss Taylor. One of the most brilliant social entertainments of Thanksgiving week will be the debut dance on the evening of Friday, November 27th, at the Jefferson, when Miss Mary Taylor will be introduced, a Richmond society by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis D. Aylett, lifetime friends of her father, the late Robert Lee Taylor.

The decorative color scheme will be developed in green and white, palms, southern smilax and white chrysanthemums being used with lavish and artistic effect.

The receiving party will include Mr. and Mrs. Lewis D. Aylett, Miss Taylor, Governor and Mrs. Swanson, Judge and Mrs. R. Carter Scott, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hagan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Christian, Mr. and Mrs. T. Moncure Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Levin Joyner, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mayo, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Willis, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. McCabe, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Willard, Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Leake, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. R. Stewart Hume and Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Wortham.

Miss Crutchfield, hostess. Among the entertainments scheduled for Thanksgiving week is a tea to be given by Miss Willy Crutchfield, of No. 112 North Morris Street, on Friday afternoon, November 27th, from 5 to 6. Miss Crutchfield will entertain the members of her receiving party and a number of her friends among the young society men of the town in the evening. The occasion promises to be one of the prettiest of the Thanksgiving affairs.

"Fete in Flowerland."

Rehearsals for a "Fete in Flowerland" to be given at a matinee and night performance in the Academy of Music, November 28th, under the direction of Miss Annie May Moorman, Mrs. Armistead Wellford and Miss Ella Binford, are going forward with a swing and an interest that promises a brilliant success for Saturday afternoon and evening.

The debutantes of this season and previous seasons, the little people and the socially important are to take part in the performance are all fine in their respective roles, the tableaux, the flower reveals, the motion songs and the whole brilliant spectacular effect being one of singular charm and beauty.

In addition to box-holders already mentioned, Mrs. Joseph E. Willard and Mrs. John L. Eubank have been added to the list.

Besides the little people previously mentioned as impersonating different flowers, the following names have been added since the last publication: Sweet Peas—Alice Hoge, Dorothea Tatum, Lila Johnson, Phyllis Taylor, Marie Long, Jane Christian, Charlotte Jones, Mary Pilkinton, Lynne Jones and Mary Powers.

Japanese Children—Wallace Nell, Eleanor McCarthy, Rose Moseley, Snowdrops—Turner Arrington, Margaret Marks, Lawrence Haynes and Arthur Richardson.

Lilies—Margaret Boyce, Annie Batte, Dorothy Kohler, Elizabeth Pattee and Ruby Price.

Rosebuds—Jan Blair, Ellinor Fry, Elizabeth Diggs and Susan Cooke.

Forget-me-nots—Virginia Fry, Edmondia Beattie, Virginia Long and E. Nowland.

Young girls who will appear in a "Revel of Smilax" will be Miss Rebecca Walker, Miss Alice Nelson, Miss Elizabeth Kent King, Miss Myra Chambers, Miss Mary Butler, Miss Marie Milnes, Miss Anna Lintburn, Allen, Nancy Waddill, Sarah Baughman, Jean Knox, Edith Donnan, Catha Wellford, Lucy Ford Wortham, Katherine Echels, Anne Taylor and Augusta Freeman.

Entertained at Bridge.

Miss Grace Lyon, of No. 607 East Grace Street, was a bridge whist hostess of Wednesday afternoon, November 18th. Her guests were Mrs. Charles L. Todd, Mrs. Pendleton Turner, Mrs. Austin Brockebrough, Mrs. Rolfe Glover, Mrs. Samuel Davies, Mrs. Cluis, Mrs. Larkin Glasbrook, Mrs. Samuel Waddill, Mrs. Edgar Gunn, Mrs. Norton Savage, Mrs. Farden, Mrs. John Hagan, Mrs. William I. Chas. Haase & Sons, turned from a year's study abroad, is a talented young musician, whose name will be added to the galaxy of young Richmond people who are making valuable reputations in the musical world.

Furriers, 207 E. Broad Street.

The second meeting of the history class will be held on Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. W. T. Robins will tell the ladies what she knows on "The State of Society, Politically and Socially, During the Reign of Louis XIV."

On Friday evening, the 27th instant, at half-past 8, the first card tournament will be played, bridge being the game. It will be managed by Admiral Hans Webster, and all members intending to compete are requested to send their names to the house committee, not later than 10 A. M. on Friday morning. Members may invite gentlemen partners to play with one another. No ladies residing in Richmond can be asked.

Colonial Bazaar. A colonial bazaar will be given in Woman's Christian Association hall, No. 709 and 711 East Franklin Street, on Tuesday, December 1st, from 4 P. M. to 11 P. M.

The colonial scheme will be carried out by pretty girls appearing in powder and patches to serve refreshments, and palmistry will be one of the many interesting features of the occasion. Mr. Frank Cosby will have charge of a most attractive musical program.

Admission to this bazaar is free, and all are invited to attend. The entertainment is given for the benefit of the parish school of St. Luke's Mission, this city, and donations of fancy articles, candy or cake should be sent to Dr. John R. Wheat, No. 295 East Main Street.

The official president of the bazaar is Miss Annie Jacobs. A committee of ladies in charge will be Mesdames John R. Wheat, A. Belne Blair, W. M. Wade, Wallace Moncure, Misses Lewis, Wine, and others.

Circle Tea. The friends of In the Service of the King's Circle of King's Daughters, will be pleased to know that the afternoon teas given in the homes of various members last winter will be resumed this winter.

The hosts of the first tea of this season will be Mrs. George Lumsden, of No. 2609 East Franklin Street, who will be at home Tuesday, November 24th, from 4 to 6 P. M.

Mrs. Sallie Montgomery Brown has kindly consented to be present at that time, and give several musical selections.

All interested in the circle and its work, as well as the public generally, are cordially invited to call.

Colonel McCabe to Lecture. At the request of the ladies of Belle Harrison Memorial Circle of King's Daughters, Colonel W. Gordon McCabe has kindly consented to deliver his celebrated lecture on "The Life of Henryson," revised and enlarged since his last trip abroad, in Woman's Club Tuesday evening, November 24th, at 8.30 o'clock.

Will Give Reception. The Ladies' Aid society of the First English Lutheran Church, will give a reception to the new members of the church on Tuesday, November 24th, at 8 P. M. All members and friends of the church are cordially invited to attend this reception.

Arts and Crafts Exhibit. The arts and crafts exhibit, directed by Mrs. R. M. Blankenship and Miss Carrie Coleman, will open on the ground floor of No. 201 East Franklin Street at 10 A. M. of to-morrow.

All the beautiful specimens of handiwork in antique mahogany, Persian rugs, Sheffield plate, copper, brass, burnt leather work, painting, drawing, housewifery and needlework to be found in a high-grade arts and crafts shop, will be here displayed.

The rooms in which the exhibit is to be held will be most attractively arranged, a feature being a collection of miniatures executed by artists in Richmond and Virginia.

The tea room to-morrow afternoon will be presided over by Misses E. Ingram, Helen Adams, Barbara Trigg and Fanny Miller.

The patronesses of the exhibit are representative of the best society women, whose names have already been published.

Studio Talk. The second talk in the regular course of "The History of Art and Art Appreciation," conducted by Miss Moselle D. Apperson at her studio in the Virginia Building, was given Thursday afternoon from 5 to 6 o'clock.

The subject, "Dark and Light," was fully discussed, Miss Apperson explained the difference between the two, and the importance of the subject in art.

The talk was very interesting and was well received by the audience.

The next talk will be given on Friday afternoon, November 27th, at 5 o'clock.
